RE: United States v. Kasien Adderley
Criminal Docket 22 CR 82 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

MEMO ENDORSED

This letter is a request to modify Mr. Adderley's bail conditions which is set at strict home incarceration. Pretrial objects to such a request because of his designation and the Government defers to Pretrial. Mr. Adderley would like permission from the court to attend the graduation ceremony for two of his daughter's. Mr. Adderley would also like an opportunity to seek gainful employment as well as assist his wife in dropping and picking up his daughter from school. It is a hardship for his wife to both work and drop and pick up their daughter from school.

Mr. Adderley's daughter Kali Adderley graduates Friday, June 24th, at Morris Accession Presbyterian Church Sanctuary at 10 am and his daughter Amya Boyd graduates from high school on June 23rd at 6 pm at the Field of Dreams at 313 East 100th Street, New York, NY 10029.

The address for the school drop-off and pickup is Morris Accession Presbyterian church sanctuary and drop off time is 8:30 am and pick up time is 4 pm. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Kenneth J. Montgomery

Attorney for Kasien Adderley

Denied. Strict home incarceration means what it says.

If Counsel wants a bail Modification hearing, he should request one.
